New Path

Families at the GA

This year, New Path supported several families as they visited the general assembly. Families shared their story with their legislators as well as their legislators supporting The Arc of Virginia's Legislative agenda.

Mommas & Poppas Connection

Are you looking to connect with other families who are going through the same barriers, struggles and uncertainties that you sometimes find yourself going through? Join Mommas & Poppas Connection (MPC) where you will find a group of parents/caregivers who will welcome you with open arms.

Your Voice Matters!

DBHDS is inviting parents to join their team to provide input for change in our early intervention services across Virginia. Please email Eriel Chambers. Her email can be found on the info page

Upcoming Events

The following training/webinars will be coming in April.

- Kelli Smith, Owner of Thrive Behavior Consulting LLC will be sharing information and strategies to help support young children with a developmental disability/delay.
- New Path will hold a paint night for parents of Mommas & Poppas Connection to join virtually or in person. This will be a hybrid opportunity to have a little fun.

2024 State Convention
